'We Connect You in Asia,' encapsulates what we do and the boundless possibilities that lie ahead, including our commitment to sustainable, technological, and human connections.

President's Message

Our tagline, "We Connect You in Asia," encapsulates what we do and the boundless possibilities that lie ahead, including our commitment to sustainable, technological, and human connections.

Travel is all about connections - the physical journeys we take to breathtaking destinations and the human bonds we form.

At Tour East, our teams across Asia help make these connections meaningful, creating enriching cultural experiences for every traveller.

We value our global partnerships and work together to provide exceptional client experiences. Our success is linked to theirs.

Because of our technology investments, we can provide our partners instant access to pricing, availability, and confirmation for various destinations. They can provide their customers with swift and precise services.

Our Progressive Web App provides digital itineraries, destination info, options, and customer service. We prioritize sustainability while enhancing service delivery and communication with partners and clients. Embracing technology means smoother journeys and a greener, more sustainable future.

Despite our technological strides, we understand that tourism remains inherently human. Tour East's core has always been superior customer service, deep destination expertise, and enduring relationships. Our people, their expertise, and unwavering dedication are irreplaceable in crafting extraordinary experiences for over half a century.

In essence, "We Connect You in Asia" signifies our dedication to making meaningful connections in every sense - sustainable, technological, and human.

Our Technology

WebConnect

Our online platform, WebConnect, offers B2B partners seamless and efficient access to essential information, including hotel rates, promotions, transfers, excursions, and other vital services in key countries. With just the click of a button, they can quickly generate convenient tariffs, check availability, and make bookings.

PRODUCT SEARCH

The Product Search function effortlessly finds specific product details and descriptions. Agents can view, print and share the information in PDF format, ensuring convenient access to crucial product information.

TARIFF

Access and export quarterly/yearly tariffs effortlessly. Agents can conveniently view comprehensive tariff details for all services within a destination, streamlining the process for informed decision-making.

AVAILABILITY

Using the Availability function, quickly check service confirmability within each destination.

Agents can easily manage and monitor service availability, ensuring a smooth booking experience.

BOOKING

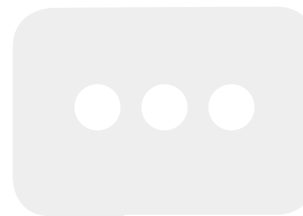

After identifying services that match the client's itinerary and budget, agents can effortlessly handle quotations and place bookings, ensuring efficient client service with just a few clicks.

Tour East's Progressive Web Application (PWA) – is our gateway to enhanced convenience and personalized service. This cutting-edge technology tool is designed to empower our clients from the moment they arrive at their destination. Let's explore the key features:

QR CODE INTEGRATION

Customers are provided with their QR code before departure or upon arrival, granting access to a plethora of information, such as updated itineraries, driver and guide information, schedules, comprehensive details, digital vouchers, and more. We go paperless!

INTERACTIVE SUPPORT

Our app provides a hassle-free way to contact our in-destination support team, which enables our clients to easily clarify details, receive more recommendations, or quickly seek assistance as needed.
